Independent Auditors' Report

To the Board of Directors of The Ability Experience:

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of The Ability Experience, formerly Push America (a nonprofit organization), which comprise the statements of financial position as of September 30, 2015 and 2014, and the related statements of activities, functional expenses and cash flows for the years then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America; this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditors' Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits. We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of The Ability Experience as of September 30, 2015 and 2014, and the changes in its net assets and its cash flows for the years then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Notes to Financial Statements

September 30, 2015 and 2014

1. Organization

The Ability Experience, Inc. (“the Organization”), formerly known as Push America, is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization that serves people with disabilities. The Ability Experience was founded in 1977 as the national philanthropy of Pi Kappa Phi Fraternity with the purpose of instilling lifelong service in its members and enhancing the quality of life for people with disabilities. The Ability Experience has grown into a national nonprofit with numerous programs educating undergraduates, alumni and communities about the abilities of people with disabilities while forging friendships between Pi Kappa Phi members and people with disabilities.

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Basis of Presentation

Financial statement presentation follows the recommendations of the Financial Accounting Standards Board Accounting Standards Codification (ASC) 958-205 Not-for-Profit Entities: Presentation of Financial Statements. Under ASC 958-205, the Organization is required to report information regarding its financial position and activities according to three classes of net assets as follows:

Unrestricted net assets: Net assets that are not subject to donor-imposed stipulations.

Temporarily restricted net assets: Net assets subject to donor-imposed restrictions that expire when a stipulated time restriction ends or purpose restriction is accomplished.

Permanently restricted net assets: Net assets subject to donor-imposed restrictions that must be maintained permanently by the organization. Generally the donors of these assets permit the organization to use all or part of the income earned on the related investment for general or specific purposes.

Support that is restricted by the donor is reported as an increase in unrestricted net assets if the restriction expires in the reporting period in which the support is recognized.

Cash Equivalents

The Organization considers all highly liquid debt instruments with a maturity of three months or less when purchased to be cash equivalents.

Promises to Give

All contributions are considered to be available for unrestricted use unless specifically restricted by the donor. Amounts received that are designated for future periods or restricted by the donor for specific purposes are reported as temporarily restricted or permanently restricted support that increases these net asset classes. However, if a restriction is fulfilled in the same time period in which the contribution is received, the entity reports the support as unrestricted.

Unconditional promises to give that are expected to be collected within one year are recorded at their face value. Unconditional promises to give that are expected to be collected in future years are recorded at the net present value. The discounts on those amounts are computed using an interest rate applicable to the year in which the promise is received. The discount rates range from 0.84% to 1.77% for pledges receivable as of September 30, 2015 and 2014. Amortization of the discount is included in contribution revenue. Conditional promises to give are not included as support until the conditions are substantially met.

For the years ended September 30, 2015 and 2014, management has determined that an allowance for doubtful accounts was not necessary.

Investments

The Organization accounts for investments under FASB ASC 958 Not-for-Profit Entities. Under ASC 958, investments in equity securities with readily determinable fair values and all investments in debt securities are reported at their fair values. Investment returns that are restricted by the donor are reported as an increase in unrestricted net assets if the restrictions expire in the reporting period in which the investment returns are recognized.

Property and Equipment

Property and equipment are carried at cost or, if donated, at the approximate fair value at the date of donation. The Organization capitalizes office equipment, furnishings, and other fixed assets with a value in excess of $500. Depreciation is computed using primarily the straight-line method over the estimated lives of the assets, ranging from three to ten years. Improvements to property and equipment that do not extend the useful life of the asset are expensed in the year incurred.

Long-Lived Assets

Cash or other assets whose use is restricted to acquire long-lived assets are recorded as temporarily restricted until the long-lived assets are acquired. Once acquired, long-lived assets are recorded as unrestricted net assets unless otherwise disclosed.

Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Donated Materials, Services, and Use of Property

Under FASB ASC 958 Not-for-Profit Entities, the Organization recognizes services requiring specialized skills such as those provided by accountants, attorneys, marketing consultants, and other professionals if the services would need to be purchased if not donated. The Journey of Hope and other team and special events receive donations of lodging, meals, vehicles and services. These donations are valued at estimated fair market value. The amount of donated services recognized as revenues and expenses for the years ended September 30, 2015 and 2014, are $350,822 and $390,251, respectively.

Expense Allocation

The costs of providing various programs and other activities have been summarized on a functional basis in the Statements of Activities and in the Statements of Functional Expenses. Accordingly, certain costs have been allocated among the programs and supporting services benefited.

Financial Development

Financial development expenses represent amounts incurred in raising additional funds for the Organization.

Contributions

Contributions received are recorded as unrestricted, temporarily restricted, or permanently restricted support, depending on the existence and/or nature of any donor restrictions.

Donor-restricted support is reported as an increase in temporarily or permanently restricted net assets, depending on the nature of the restriction. When a restriction expires (that is, when a stipulated time restriction ends or purpose restriction is accomplished), temporarily restricted net assets are reclassified to unrestricted net assets and reported in the Statements of Activities as net assets released from restrictions. Certain restricted contributions received in the same year in which the restrictions are met are recorded as an increase in unrestricted support.

Fair Value of Financial Instruments

The Organization has estimated the fair value of its financial instruments using available market information and other valuation methodologies in accordance with ASC 820 Fair Value Measurements and Disclosures. The FASB Fair Value Measurement standard clarifies the definition of fair value for financial reporting, establishes a framework for measuring fair value, and expands disclosures about fair value measurements in an effort to make the measurement of fair value more consistent and comparable. Financial instruments, as defined in ASC Topic No. 825-10-50 Fair Value of Financial Instruments, consist of cash, accounts receivable, investments, accounts payable, and accrued expenses.

Fair Value Measurement defines fair value as the amount that would be received from the sale of an asset or paid for the transfer of a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants, i.e. an exit price. To estimate an exit price, a three-tier hierarchy is used to prioritize the inputs:

- Level 1: Quoted prices in active markets for identical securities.
- Level 2: Other significant observable inputs (including quoted prices for similar securities, interest rates, prepayment spreads, credit risk, etc.).
- Level 3: Significant unobservable inputs (including the Organization's own assumptions in determining the fair value of investments).

The fair value of each class of financial instruments for which it is practicable to estimate the fair value were determined as follows:

Investments in mutual funds– Valued at the quoted net asset value of shares held by the Organization at year end.

The preceding methods described may produce a fair value calculation that may not be indicative of net realizable value or reflective of future fair values. Furthermore, although management believes its valuation methods are appropriate and consistent with other market participants, the use of different methodologies or assumptions to determine the fair value of certain financial instruments could result in a different fair value measurement at the reporting date.

Income Taxes

The Organization is exempt from federal income taxes under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. Additionally, the Organization is not a private foundation pursuant to Internal Revenue Code Section 509(a)(1).

Subsequent Events

The Organization has analyzed its operations subsequent to September 30, 2015, through March 01, 2016, the date the financial statements were available to be issued, for potential recognition or disclosure in the financial statements.

3. Concentrations

The Ability Experience, Inc. is subject to some credit risk through cash investments which are placed in a high credit quality financial institution. The Organization did not exceed maximum insured deposit limitations at September 30, 2015 and 2014.

4. Promises to Give

Unconditional promises to give are included in the financial statements as promises to give and revenue of the appropriate net asset classification. Unconditional promises to give at September 30, 2015 and 2014 consisted of the following:

	2015	2014
Unconditional promises to give	$ 122,491	$ 138,000
Less: unamortized discount	(5,099)	(3,402)
Unconditional promises to give - net	$ 117,392	$ 134,598

Unconditional promises to give at face value at September 30, 2015 and 2014 are as follows:

	2015	2014
Receivable in less than one year	$ 44,000	$ 54,000
